

Medication Administration

Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to take the state examination for Medication Technician for becoming a Medication Aide, administered by the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Health Service Regulation, Health Care Personnel Education and Credentialing Section, and Pearson Vue.